From the Manse ...

Dear Friends,

Summertime is coming and it won't be long before record temperature sunny days are with us – we're in for a hot summer according to the BBC weatherman.

Our beaches and parks and lakes will be crowded and many people will be out sunbathing. So around about now our TVs will start to fill with adverts for products to help us get in shape for the beach – "Special K" diets and trips to the gym or the swimming pool. I recall once in my younger days trying to use swimming as a get fit exercise. As I flailed my way from one side of the pool to the other, I was keenly aware of the other swimmers. As I reached the edge of the pool, I would latch onto the side, fighting to catch my breath – swimming is much harder than you might think! They reached the edge, performed perfect flip turns and continued their swim. My efforts were painful to perform and even more painful to watch. In other words, I was embarrassed. If I'm honest, none of them cared what I was doing. But I was shamed into retreating to the relative safety of squash and cycling, I'm not worthy for swimming yet. "Once I get into shape," I told myself, "I'll return to the pool."

Jesus' message is just the opposite: "Come to God, and He will make you worthy." Many of us feel like that when we go to church or when we think about going to church. Everyone else seems to be so perfect while we're painfully aware of our inadequacies. Some don't even want to think about God for the same reason. We want to somehow get our lives together, and then we'll go to Him. If you've felt that way, you need to realize that church is a place where people go to straighten out their lives. At the time of Jesus, the Pharisees said, "Become worthy, then come to God." Jesus' message was just the opposite: "Come to God, and He will make you worthy." God helps to fix our broken lives. Jesus said, "I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners." He's looking for the people that need help spiritually, not the people whose lives are already perfect.

So if you don't feel "good enough" to swim in God's pool, let me invite you this summer to get back in the water. God wants to help us get into shape spiritually, so that we can feel equipped to do what he is calling us to do in service to him.

Grace and peace to you - Keith

Fairtrade Stall

The stall in June took £80, thanks to everyone, and especially Tony for a substantial purchase of the bamboo socks! They really are super-soft to wear, so try them yourself if you get the chance. We still have a couple of pairs in stock on the stall.

The next opportunity will be after the service on 17th July (as I will be away at the beginning of July) when the stall will be set up as usual with a range of foods and goodies.

Church Treasurer

After many years of faithful service as our Church Treasurer, for which we are very grateful to him, Joe has recently resigned from that post, and naturally we are in need of someone to volunteer to take over from him. If you think you are that person, please contact our minister, Keith.

Some aspects of the Treasurer's job are routine and straightforward, while other aspects require a certain amount of expertise, and I have asked Joe to write a job description, so that we can identify what the job really involves. It already looks like someone in Aylesbury can take on the jobs requiring the expertise, leaving us to find someone to look after the routine jobs. So this might make the job less daunting for someone in our church. I'm sure that Joe would be only too pleased to talk it over with you if you are mildly interested.

Tuesday Fellowship

At our May meeting David Robbins gave us a talk on the research he had carried out into his Granddad's service history in the first world war. David's Granddad, John Robbins, was an early volunteer at the age of 36 and first joined the Oxford & Bucks light infantry then transferred to the Hampshire Regiment and he was killed among the trenches on the first day of a sustained attack on Turkish forces in the Gallipoli campaign. David told us how the early death of his Granddad affected the family with five children at home, the youngest only three years old, and how the family was broken up for years to come. After the research David told how he was invited by the government to attend the national commemorations at the Cenotaph in London to mark the centenary of the Gallipoli Campaign and what a memorable day that was.

Our next meeting is on 19th July at the Church at 2pm and our August meeting is on 16th August when we have very kindly been invited for a Garden Tea at the home of Barbara and Peter Oates.

Lighthouse

Christian Holiday Week
25th – 29th July

Princes Risborough School playing field, New Road.

We are busy organising another action and fun packed week for Lighthouse around the theme of 'Space'. It will be packed full of fun, games, crafts, sports, competitions and of course, learning some important life lessons along the way.

The website address to register your child is www.princesrisboroughlighthouse.co.uk and click on JUNIOR CREW SIGN UP.

Little Lighthouse will again be on site for parents, babies and toddlers. If you intend to come along, please register your children, even though they will be accompanied by you whilst at Lighthouse.

Lighthouse cannot take place without our dedicated army of volunteers. If you would like to experience firsthand the energy and fun at Lighthouse, then there are all sorts of roles from helping on site to serving in the cafe and assisting with craft, as well as helping at Fiesta in the evenings, to name but a few. No offer of help is too small and many roles are broken down into 1-2 hour time slots. In particular, this year we would love to fill our Deputy Site Manager position which is mainly sharing an overseeing role helping to ensure the smooth running of the site during Lighthouse week. There is a brief job description for each role and you can select which times/dates you wish to help. We require two references for all helpers and undertake DBS checks where these are required. There is also a mandatory training session for all helpers. If you would like to help you can register as a helper on the website above and click on SENIOR CREW SIGN UP.

Please remember that if you are intending to help, please register your children who are coming too!

Elaine Hassall, Lighthouse Administrator.

Please continue to collect jam jars and empty tins for craft activities (tins that have ring pull lids are ideal as they don't leave a sharp edge). There is also a need for rolls of wallpaper; the pattern isn't important as the reverse side is used. Items may be stored at Church.

The Lighthouse Commissioning Service is on Sunday 24th July in the Marquee.

Songs of Praise 2016

The theme of the forthcoming 'Songs of Praise 2016' service, at Aylesbury Methodist Church on 19th July at 6pm is 'Great Hymns' based on the Psalms. The service will be led by Rev Helen Kirk.

In researching, we located over 50 which has been reduced to 14, all with well known tunes, ideal for good congregational singing.

There is just one augmented choir rehearsal planned for Friday 15th July at 7.45 pm at Aylesbury.

If you are interested in joining the Circuit Choir, you will be most welcome. Please contact me on 01296 428580 or brendaj.horne@gmail.com, so that sufficient copies of the music can be made available. The Choir will be presenting 4 items which will be the main pieces covered during the rehearsal.

You will be very welcome at the AMC choir rehearsal on 1st July if you want to know what will be sung or cannot get to the one on the 15th July. Please be there by 8pm.

Please come and join the congregation if you do not wish to join the choir — singing is good therapy for body, mind and soul!

Silent Prayers

at St. Dunstan's Church Hall on Monday evenings at 8pm

- 1st August
- 12th September
- 24th October
- 5th December

We need silence to help us get a perspective on our lives; to hear the still, small voice of God, and refresh our inner being. All are welcome of any faith or none. Each meeting lasts about 45 minutes to an hour. More details from Revd James Tomkins 01844 275944 or jamestomkins@btinternet.com.

Retiring Collection

There will be a retiring collection for our charity ROPE after the service on 7th August.

Action for Children

The special Sunday for Action for Children is 10th July. Gift envelopes are included with this Messenger if you would like to make a donation for the work of this Methodist-inspired charity, which places children at the heart of everything they do. Please return the envelopes via the collection as usual.

Those of you who have collection boxes at home will not need to use the gift envelopes as you already generously donate throughout the year, so please let me have the boxes for emptying on or around 10th July.

The theme this year is Time to Transform, as Action for Children reflects on how it can best prioritise its work and use the £50,000 that Methodist churches raise each year.

With our continued support it can transform children's lives for the better, especially those who are disadvantaged in any way. As well as providing homes for children without families who can care for them, Action for Children helps families in the community in many ways, with support groups tailored to their needs. Short breaks for children with learning difficulties and for the parents of disabled children can be a lifesaver for the families, and activity groups enhance many lives.

Action for Children also arranges fostering and also campaigns for changes in legislation which would enhance the lives of children.

Christian Aid

During May we received a generous donation of £3,650, which meant that the PR&D Group were able to send a cheque for £5,000 towards the Ethiopia Community Partnership (www.christianaid.org.uk/getinvolved/communitypartnership/) Details can be found on the noticeboard in the Back Hall. Thanks to the European Union's 5:1 match funding this gift has been multiplied to a total of £30,000. An amazing achievement worth celebrating.

Christian Aid Week

There was no house-to-house collection this year as our collectors are getting fewer in number and more frail. However, we did manage to raise £1,760.51.

My grateful thanks to everyone who contributed.

The group now takes a break and resumes the monthly lunches on Thursday 1st September

The Princes Centre

The trustees are delighted with the news that our chairman of the Board of Trustees, Cllr Matthew Walsh, has recently been elected as the Chairman of the Town Council / Mayor of Princes Risborough. He is a loyal, hardworking and enthusiastic supporter of the Princes Centre and richly deserves this position.

During the Queen's 90th birthday celebrations week, the Centre was awash with flags, bunting and other decorations and the clients were enjoying special entertainment sessions. Those participating in the Jingers choir are looking forward to a visit from the well known 'Military Wives' who are going to sing to them, and they, in turn, will sing to the Military Wives. This provides encouragement for them to excel and last year they were taken to the Albert Hall and had a chance to sing there.

The minibus working group, having received three quotations for their chosen vehicle to replace the aging and unreliable bus, have ordered a Mercedes Sprinter 514 Cdi. This is due to arrive in October and gives us several months to raise the balance of funds required to purchase it.

There is another Quiz and Bingo evening being held at the Princes Centre on Friday 15th July. We do hope that you will come along and support it. The evening is great fun and a meal is provided halfway through. Please ring Kim on 01844 345105 for details and to book a table.

An open day is planned in September where visitors will be able to learn more of the activities undertaken at the centre and when details of our new branding, bus, and fundraising activities will be available. It is hoped that anyone interested in attending the Centre on a regular basis will also come and have a taste of what to expect. If you would like to come but are not able to get yourself to the Centre, please phone Kim and she will be able to arrange transport.

The collection held outside Tesco's in May raised £707.47 which, with a further £176.86 claim from HMRC as Gift Aid makes a total of £884.33. We have recently received a number of donations from people including some from the TSB Bank and the Black Dog Band and a couple of substantial ones through 'My Donate'. Marks and Spencer's and Tesco's are both generously providing surplus food items for the benefit of the Centre and the clients. The trustees are very grateful for everyone's support, especially those who regularly volunteer their help or financial support.
