

Talking of God Together.

The feedback from the Circuit consultations last year, highlighted the subject of our difficulty of speaking about Jesus to one another and to those outside our churches. So, we have put together five evenings of lively conversation and debate on the subject.

These will be at Stoke Mandeville Methodist Church, all starting with refreshments at 7.00 pm and ending by 9.00 pm.

The evenings are open to everyone and are designed to be informative, worthwhile and (even though the subject is serious,) fun! The hope is that these sessions will contribute to the Growth Plan process and enable us to grow together.

We would be thrilled if you can join us!

The dates are all Tuesday evenings:

- 2nd April with Rev Dr Romilly Micklem:
'Creating a Culture of Welcome'.
- 16th April with Rev Helen Kirk:
'Talking of God Together - A Present God'.
- 30th April with Arthur Sara:
'Talking of God Together - A Listening God'.
- 14th May with Rev Donna Broadbent Kelly:
'Talking of God Together - A Caring God'.
- 4th June with Rev Keith Edwards:
'Talking of God Together - A Speaking God'.

Please put the dates in your diary now!

The sessions are free although there will be a small dish by the cakes and biscuits, for donations towards expenses. Please let me know if you can make some or all of the sessions - I will need numbers preferably before the day, as I need to purchase books and other materials.

Please let me know by Thursday 21 March if you hope to attend!

See you there.
