LETTER TO THE CIRCUIT
NUMBER 23/29
Charity Number 1134235

Rev Helen Kirk

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

This Easter Sunday declaration is always a joyful exclamation when Christians gather to celebrate the resurrection. And it should be.

As we have journeyed with Jesus through Lent we have heard a harrowing story: a story of betrayal; arrest; physical pain; emotional separation; fear; denial and ultimately death, grief & loss. So when, like those first disciples, we hear the amazing news that the story has not ended; that Jesus is alive; that new beginnings, new hope, new life is possible even in the midst of grief & despair we can do no other but lift our voices in joyful praise. The cosmos has changed forever.

This story of Easter offers a hopeful narrative for our lives and the life of the world. It is not a fairy tale to be tritely repeated but a story that has the audacity to believe that light can be possible even in the darkest places; that life can be realised even after death; that transformation can occur even in the bleakest of scenarios. As Christians this narrative must be at the heart of our community like the writing through a stick of rock it must touch upon every aspect of our church's life allowing us to view the world with a different perspective.

However as I have ministered in different parts of the country for nearly 20 years I do wonder if the Methodist Church actually believes the story that we proclaim. We are so often afraid of change; we are terrified of 'dying'; of letting go of things that we 'have always done' to allow something new to begin. Yet as Jesus said 'unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds'

What would it mean for our churches to have a resurrection faith? For the heartbeat of our congregations to be the possibility of new life; for us to no longer have as our main focus just 'keeping it going' but instead to find fresh ways to proclaim 'Jesus is Lord!'

Changing the way we do things is never easy; it is often risky; it can be painful and there are no guarantees but if we truly believe the story we declare then we have hope in abundance. May we, as we celebrate the Easter season, have the courage to be Easter People living a faith that is full of possibilities not just for ourselves but the communities we serve.

Helen

Prayer for the Quarter

Christ is risen! May we never lose our awareness that this is something to be excited about.

Christ is risen! Our one sure hope in a darkened world

Christ is risen! God forbid we should ever forget and say 'business as usual'.

Lord be risen in us that we may live our lives each day as you would have us live them. Amen.

Cover Story

The Choir and musicians helping us all to enter into the joy of Christmas, by adding new music as well as descants to the enjoyment of the congregational carol singing.

This year we were introduced to a Celtic Christmas Celebration "Shepherds Joy", a new work written by Mark Hayes and John Parker, which has elements for instruments alone, while accompanying the choral parts. We were delighted to see how the young musicians have progressed in the past year, and look forward to hearing much more from them. Our Carol Service is always enjoyable, with a full Church of family and friends. It is preceded by a bring and share tea, with some lovely home made cakes.

The Singers have continued to rehearse twice a month throughout the year. They prepare music for Palm Sunday/Easter, Harvest Festival, and the Christmas Carols. They also sing introits and anthems on other special occasions, and this year were invited to sing Peter Lukin's setting of the Blessing at the Farewell Service for David & Paula Jenkins; and an anthem, Tye's "O Holy Spirit, Lord of grace", at the Induction Service for the new Superintendent minister, Rev. Helen Kirk."

Super's Walk

This time last year I was lucky enough to be on sabbatical; a gift from the church of three months to reflect on faith and be refreshed for ministry. During my sabbatical I rediscovered a love of walking; something that in the rush of a busy life I had forgotten could be so therapeutic.

Walking is not only good exercise but it allows you to take in the scenery; to talk with people along the way and maybe even share a journey with companions old & new. So when I became the superintendent of the Vale of Aylesbury Circuit and faced the challenge of getting to know 18 churches & their congregations I decided that I would 'walk the circuit'.

Not all 18 churches at once but 3 churches at a time!

I propose to begin at the first church with a short reflection over coffee in the morning; arrive at the next church at lunchtime and again share a short reflection & then onto the third church in the afternoon which hopefully would end with a cup of tea and another brief reflection.

I am hoping that people will join me for some of my 'pilgrimage' – either for a time of fellowship at one of the churches or to walk some of the way with me.

I have yet to work out the exact timings of each day but I have grouped the churches together and allocated each group a day as follows:

Thursday	23rd April:	Thame/ Chinnor/ Princes Risborough
Saturday	2nd May:	AMC/ Stoke Mandeville/Stone
Saturday	9th May:	Fairford Leys/ Cuddington/ Haddenham
Tuesday	2th May:	Waddesdon/North Marston/ Whitchurch
Wednesday	20th May:	Wingrave/Weedon/ cheddington
Monday	1st June:	Stewkley/Swanbourne/ Stoke Hammond

Once the details of each day are sorted I will publicise them but for now please let me know if you are interested in being involved or can help in any way.

I look forward to meeting some of you 'along the way'.

Swanbourne Methodist Chapel - Highlights 2014

As usual, the year started with a Covenant Service, held jointly with our Anglican friends, and led by our own minister, Rev. Irena Byron. The Lent Lunch, held in the Chapel on Saturday 15th February, was again a shared activity with the Anglican Church, raising funds for the Aylesbury Food Bank.

The Women's World Day of Prayer in the Chapel on Friday 7th March, was based on a service prepared by the women of Egypt, and was led by our own Local Preacher, Frankie Fisher.

The Palm Sunday Walk from Chapel to Church, together with a donkey, was well attended, and followed by a united Church Service. (picture right)

The Hoe Down on June 14th, held in the barn behind Brises Farmhouse, was another opportunity to let our hair down, with dancing to the music of the Cock and Bull Band. The feast provided by Toby Terry together with a variety of puddings from various people, meant that everyone went away feeling full of fun and food. (picture left)

On Sunday June 29th, our annual Open Air Circuit service was actually held in the barn, as the weather was rather windy and uncertain. Secklow Brass provided a wonderful accompaniment to our enthusiastic singing, as always, with Rev David Jenkins giving us a thoughtful address. The collection for All We Can (the Methodist fund for relief and development) raised nearly £200. The Summer Sponsored Walk was for The Florence Nightingale Hospice and raised £170.60.

The Harvest Supper on Saturday 4th October was a full house, with nearly 50 people sitting down to a lovely meal.

The Harvest Festival itself on Sunday 12th October was again a feast of colour and aroma, with a Family Service in the morning and an Evening Festival Service, followed by an auction of produce on the Monday evening. Altogether, the harvest events raised £70 for Christian Aid and £670 towards chapel expenditure and maintenance. (picture right)

The Advent Season started with a well-attended

Christingle Service, with a collection of over £140 going to Action for Children. Then on December 18th, Chapel and Church combined for a Christmas Concert in the Parish Church. The Carol Service, held on 21st December, was another a lovely occasion, with the children, as always, providing their own splendid version of The Nativity. (picture left)

GOOD NEWS from CHEDDINGTON!

It is encouraging when denominations can work together to give a positive witness about the Christian faith. St Giles Parish Church and the Methodist Chapel share their resources in many ways.

To celebrate all that exists and all that is possible in the future, the two churches have signed a 'Local Covenant'. This is not a formal or legal document, but an agreement to which the community was invited, to witness the unity of Christians in Cheddington.

An invitation was sent out to all Circuit churches, as well as the local community, to celebrate this 'Local Covenant' on January 18th, at the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

This event was a great success, attended by about 60 people, including visitors from the circuit , as far away as Chinnor! , representatives from local organisations including Chairman of the Parish Council, Residents Association, WI, Drama Group, History Society etc. and a 20 strong choir comprising St Giles and Methodist members.

An excellent tea in the Church Hall preceded the service at 5pm led by Rev Irena Byron. She outlined existing links between the churches; many regular meetings, including Open Doors, Toast (toddler group), Emmaus Group, Film night, Lent Group and Messy Church are run ecumenically, mainly using Methodist premises. It was good to sing some great hymns, accompanied by the choir, who contributed a song by Stuart Townend 'From the squalor of a borrowed stable –Immanuel'. Rev Gill Rowell gave a well-received address using Psalm 133 ' How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity'. Six representatives (picture and details above) signed four copies of the Covenant document, 1 for display and 1 for the records of each church. Both Rev Helen Kirk, and Rev Philip Derbyshire spoke briefly and eloquently at the close of the service, giving us great encouragement for the future.

On Sunday 25th January we celebrated the Methodist Covenant Service at a United Communion service at St Giles' led by Rev Gill Rowell, with Rev Irena giving the sermon.

PUBLICATIONS

'the connexion' is a new magazine which will have arrived through many letterboxes in January.

Somewhere in the region of 200 copies should have arrived with a letter requesting that they are read, then passed on to friends. So there is a good chance that you will all have seen a copy by now. They will have been delivered, in triplicate, to everyone who is listed on the Connexional Data base as a Church Officer so they all had 2 spare copies to pass on immediately.

If you have not seen a copy it means the system has not worked as hoped.

If you still have 3 copies some one has been badly let down. If you are a church officer and think you should have received your own copies then you have been let down and need to speak to your church stewards.

This is an effort to share good news and ideas across the whole of Methodism, much the same as we aim to do with the Circuit Magazine and Website in this Circuit.

The success of all these publications is dependant upon the support they get from you.

If you have questions, comments or any contribution to make please contact one of the editors listed on the facing page.
